TOP DEFINITION

It takes guts to be a regulator?

fun police

Noun; see fun assassin

1) Person or group of people who make others stop having fun for whatever reason, usually out of jealousy or spite, but sometimes because said fun is against the law.

“Prophets of doom”

“Megalomaniacs” “Doctor killjoy”

“Building Nazi’s”

“We were having fun hurling dog shit over the house into the yard across the street with my home-made trebuchet when the effing FUN POLICE made us stop”.

Consequences without Building Law

- Disasters, Loss of life (ChCh earthquake, Grenfell fire)
- Dangerous Buildings (un-inhabitable)
- Breakdown of society/business and community
- Failure to address long-term H&S and environmental issues
- Continuing health issues related to poor living conditions
- Continuing social behaviour issues associated with sub-standard working and living conditions
- Building standards for society stall, or decline
- Bad legacy!

The Talmud

The background is an abstract composition of rectangular blocks in two colors: a vibrant orange and a light grey. The orange blocks are arranged in a complex, interlocking pattern that covers most of the frame. The grey blocks are positioned around the edges and between some of the orange blocks, creating a sense of depth and contrast. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the blocks.

The background is an abstract composition of rectangular blocks in two colors: a vibrant orange and a light grey. The orange blocks are arranged in a complex, interlocking pattern that covers most of the frame. The grey blocks are positioned at the top, bottom, and sides, creating a border effect. The blocks have a textured, slightly grainy surface, and the lighting creates soft shadows, giving the composition a three-dimensional feel.

The background is an abstract composition of rectangular blocks in two colors: a vibrant orange and a light grey. The orange blocks are arranged in a staggered, interlocking pattern, creating a sense of depth and texture. The grey blocks are positioned around the edges and between the orange blocks, providing a contrast in color and texture. The overall effect is a modern, geometric design.

Believing in your WHY

The background is an abstract composition of rectangular blocks in two colors: a vibrant orange and a light grey. The orange blocks are arranged in a complex, interlocking pattern that creates a sense of depth and three-dimensionality. The grey blocks are positioned around the edges and between the orange blocks, providing a stark contrast. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the blocks and creating subtle shadows that enhance the geometric forms.

We shape our buildings;
thereafter they shape us.
